

APS NEWSLETTER JUNE 2006

As we approach the end of the season this newsletter aims to cover the remaining events and act as an aide-memoire.

Key dates for your diaries:

Monday 5th June at 7.30 in the Clubroom: Unrehearsed Play Reading organized by Charles Napier. I believe he will be reading through the play 'On The Razzle' by Tom Stoppard. This play has 24 parts so do try to attend to make the evening really worthwhile.

Friday 16th June at 7.30 in the Clubroom: Auditions for the autumn production of 'Off The Hook' to be directed by Gill Manns.

Thursday 29th June at 7.30 in the Clubroom: The APS Archives from 1934 – 2005 as organized by Mark Lambert. This is a wonderful opportunity to sift through pictorial and sound archives of the Society.

Friday 14th July at 7.30pm the Annual General Meeting and End of Season Party will be held at Gainsborough House, the home of Jim Schofield in South Street. The key issue at the AGM will be the possible move from Sherborne House to the Digby Hall. Please make every effort to attend so that you can make your views known.

Please note that elections for Committee Members will take place at the AGM and that Members can nominate people to stand and of course vote. Further details about the elections at the AGM will be sent out to all Members by the Secretary, Adrian Thorpe, in due course.

The 2005 – 2006 has been a very full and rewarding season so we look forward to as many members as possible rounding it off in style at the AGM and Party. See you there!
