A RIOT OF COLOUR AND ACTION

Almost there. We'll move the scenery, lights, costumes, staging into the Digby Hall Friday 4 April and set everything up Saturday 6 and Sunday 7. There'll be some lifting, building and painting to do, so we'll need help. If you can spare a couple of hours over the weekend that would be great.

A stunning 'in the round' set, a vibrant and energetic production all add up to an unmissable experience. If you haven't already - get your tickets now and spread the the word.

And do come along to the After Show Party on Saturday evening on the 10th. It's a celebration of all our time, energy and hard work in putting on our RSC Open Stages production.

Relatively Speaking - "a beautifully constructed and very funny comedy" Noel Coward

After just one month, Greg has made up his mind that Ginny's the girl for him. When she tells him that she's going to visit her parents, he decides this is the moment to ask her father for his daughter's hand. After discovering a scribbled address, Greg follows Ginny to Buckinghamshire. Here he finds Philip and Sheila in the garden, enjoying a lazy Sunday morning breakfast, but the only thing is they're not Ginny's parents!

MERRY WIVES POSTER IS HOLLY'S DESIGN

Our poster for 'The Merry Wives of Windsor' is the work of Holly Heaton, an A-Level student at the Gryphon School. Holly's design features on all our printed material from posters to programmes for the play, and reflects one of the key aims of our successful RSC Open Stages bid to be a community-based project.

"It was clear after reading the play that it all revolved around Falstaff and the women in his life and helped enormously in coming up with a design."

As well as a £25 cheque for her work, she will also receive two tickets for the play.

NEW MEMBER WELCOME

A warm welcome to new member Clare Porter. We wish her a long and rewarding membership.

DARK OF THE MOON PLAY-READING

Right from the first words we were all absorbed in this tale of forbidden love. The strange Witch Boy and beautiful, human Barbara Allen, meet and love and come to tragedy.

Many thanks to Gilly for her choice of this wonderful Appalachian folk tale.

"THE PLAYS THE THING"

And our autumn production for 2014 is... Yes, already we need to be thinking ahead and coming up with a play - and a director - for November 2014.

All ideas, suggestions and offers to direct contact any member of your committee. Also, if you have any ideas of plays worth considering, please do pass them on to Eve who will read them and pass on her opinion to your committee. Contact Eve on 01935 812933

- One production a year
- Two productions a year
- One major production, plus a minor production i.e. a couple of one act plays

This was the topic raised at the last meeting of your committee. Now they would like to know what you think.

You can have your say in the determining the future of the APS by emailing your comments, observations etc to me at jim.reville@btinternet.com and I will pass them on to the committee for their consideration.

WHAT'S ON

A selection of what's on around and about

Georges Feydeau's high spirited romp Sauce For The Goose is stuffed with preening characters knitting their legs in sexual frustration.

Its heady mix of passions, pace and pleasure are the perfect mix for a good night out. Untrustworthy husbands, betrayed wives, artful servants and crazed Germans demonstrate why the "naughty nineties" were so named, as master French farceur Feydeau's sparkling play switches from riotous farce to barbed social satire.

Thursday 22 May 7.30 pm Digby Hall, Sherborne. Box Office: Tourist Information Centre, Digby Road, 01935 815341

Joe Orton's Entertaining Mr Sloane, a blend of farce and black comedy, will be performed 7.30 pm at the Octagon Tues 8 and Wed 9 April.

Kath and her elderly father, Kemp, live in a house on the outskirts of a rubbish dump. Their drab existence is interrupted by the arrival of a new lodger, the enigmatic Mr Sloane

Provocative and sexually ambiguous, Sloane soon has both Kath and her brother Ed competing for his favours. But all is not as it seems. Behind

GREAT EXPECTATIONS IN SANDFORD ORCAS

No need to outline the plot so well known is Dickens' Great Expectations.

Using original words and speech (well, mostly!), Dave Mynne (co-founder of Kneehigh) will take you on a journey In this skilful, one-man adaptation. Be prepared to be scared and amazed and cry and laugh ...a lot!

It's on at 7.30 pm Saturday 5 April Sandford Orcas Village Hall For more info call Rowlie McBeath 01963 220208.

Red Rope Theatre Company bring you Arthur Miller's intimate two-hander Two-Way Mirror.

It consists of 2 short plays thought to be inspired by Miller's relationship with Marilyn Monroe.

Elegy for a Lady is the moving encounter between a customer, trying to buy a gift for his dying mistress and the proprietress, who curiously takes on the characteristics of the mistress. In contrast Some Kind of Love Story is an almost tongue in cheek pastiche of film noir and deals with a private investigator and his relationship with a prostitute who may hold the secret to his case - a compelling study of two people destined by their mutual dependence to to tear one another apart.

The Exchange, Sturminster Newton 7.30 pm Fri 22 May.

Sloane's nonchalant demeanour lies a calculating psychopath with a dark and secretive past. Seduction, blackmail and murder. lay waiting in the wings.

Unravelling the Ribbon at The Swan 7.45 pm Mon 19 to Sat 24 May.

Rose lives on a farm with her husband and two children. She worries she may have married too young. Lola wants to sell her home. Nobody ever calls, and she has stopped opening the post. Lyndsey and her best friend has stopped sitting beside her in art class.

When breast cancer touches their lives, everything starts to unravel - Rose's marriage fall apart, Lola gets arrested and Lyndsey hides a cooked ham in a thorn bush.

Unravelling the Ribbon tells the funny and touching story of these three women, as they interact, separate and come together in a moving and frequently hilarious tale of friendship and survival.

Tickets on sale from Mon 28 April.
